

This filing is in further response to the inquiry regarding the Year End Report (7/1/05 to 12/31/05). The report appeared to disclose limited payments for administrative expenses. However, all committee administrative expenses were itemized. Due to the use of consultants and the employment of just one salaried employee, there are no office space or utilities expenditures to report. The normal administrative operating expenses such as phone and postage expenditures have been reported.
